A layoff shall be defined as a reduction in the work force, or any reduction of hours for any Employee. No other form of layoff shall be made until there is consultation with the Union.

b) Layoff Procedure

- i. The Employer shall notify incumbents when positions are subject to layoff. An Employee with the least seniority shall be the first laid off. Thereafter Employees may exercise their rights to bump on a seniority basis. An Employee about to be laid off may bump any Employee with less seniority, providing the Employee exercising the right holds the necessary qualifications, to perform the work of the less senior Employee. The right to bump shall include the right to bump up.
- ii. The Parties agree that any reduction in hours will be deemed as a layoff. All laid off Employees shall be given the option to accept the hours as reduced or receive severance.
- iii. If a position is eliminated by the Employer, and subsequently reinstated within a period of sixty (60) calendar days from the date of the notice of layoff, the Employee who previously held that position shall be given the opportunity to return to that position. Any resulting vacancy shall be subject to the posting provisions.

c) Recall Procedure

- i. Employees shall be recalled in the order of their seniority.
- ii. It is the responsibility of each Employee to maintain a current telephone number and mailing address with the Employer at all times. The Employer will contact, personally, the Employee to be recalled by telephone, registered letter or courier to the mailing address last provided by the Employee.
- iii. Employees who are laid off shall remain on the recall list for a period of one (1) year from the date of layoff
- iv. When a former Employee is subsequently re-employed on permanent staff within one (1) year, he or she shall be credited with previous service for the purpose of determining length of service in connection with vacations and other benefits based on length of service.

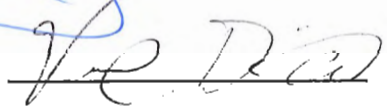

22. SEXUAL AND PERSONAL HARASSMENT

- a) The Union and the Society recognize the right of all Employees to work in an environment free from sexual and personal harassment.
- b) No Employee shall be subject to reprisal or threat of reprisal as a result of filing a grievance under this clause. It is recognized, however, that false or malicious complaints may damage the reputation or be unjust to other Employees and therefore disciplinary action may apply in cases where false or malicious complaints are lodged.
